

Condo Permit Fee Gets Passed On To Purchaser

By Linda S. Corbett

The selectmen briefly considered eliminating the new condominium permit fee this week, because at Washington Park Apartments it appears the "wrong" people will be paying.

Selectman Donn Byrne reported Monday night that when Washington Park tenants who decide to buy their apartments make their deposits, they are given a booklet which informs them that any condominium fee assessed by the town must be paid by the buyer.

Byrne said they are also told that if they don't pay the fee, their purchase agreement will be cancelled and they will forfeit the discount presently available to them. (Tenants have until Aug. 8 to purchase their units at a 12 percent savings.)

"We intended for it to be the seller that pays," Byrne said of the special condo permit fee that was approved by town meeting last month, and said he would just as soon eliminate the fee if it is going to fall on the buyer.

"The truth of it is," said Selectman Susan Poore, "it would be paid for by the buyer anyway."

Poore said it was simply the old case of supply and demand with the consumer,

"as with a box of cereal or a car," paying the full cost.

She said they could not treat Washington Park any differently than any other conversion in town, and suggested, because the new condominium bylaw is tied up in litigation, that any further discussions be taken up in executive session and "with counsel present."

Selectman Jerry Silverman felt that town meeting had empowered the board to set a condominium permit fee, and that in order to rescind it, they'd have to go back to town meeting. Besides, he said, he felt

Manager List Narrows

The selectmen will interview six finalists for town manager next week, with hopes of narrowing the field to two and making a decision after a second look at the finalists the following week.

The board met in executive session Monday night to pare down a list of 51 applicants to a "more manageable" number, and then directed Carl VanAsselt of the New England Council to set up interviews for next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday with the chosen two.

VanAsselt, hired by the board to help find a successor to Jared S.A. Clark, told them in public session that he had received 51 applications, and had divided them into three priority groups after phone calls and referencing on some of the candidates.

If the committee was going to keep on their schedule, VanAsselt said, they would need to cut the number down Monday night, choosing the ones they wanted to call in for interviews.

The selectmen then proceeded to narrow VanAsselt's top 13 applicants to half a dozen.

The committee to select a successor to Rhys Kear as head of the Department of Community Planning and Development met again last night to review finalists.

They too hope to make a decision within the next couple of weeks.

Bay State Gas Asks Rate Hike

Bay State Gas Company recently filed with the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities for a rate increase of $15,392,000 annually.

Bay State Gas, serving approximately 194,000 customers in 56 cities and towns in Massachusetts, said it needed a large portion of the 9.8 percent increase to help pay higher interest costs on borrowed funds.

Thomas W. Sherman, executive vice president and treasurer, said, "In the more than two years since Bay State's last rate request, the company has borrowed over $25,000,000 to maintain service for its customers, at a cost of more than $5,000,000 in interest. The last rate increase which the Bay State received in December 1979 is wholly inadequate to cover these additional interest costs, especially with today's cost of money at 20 percent."

Sherman said the borrowed funds were used largely to pay construction costs and to provide cash the firm needed to pay its own bills on time. "As the demand for gas has increased, more gas must be held in storage to meet customer requirements. It costs more to keep these supplies on hand," said Sherman. "In addition, there has been a slowdown in customer payment habits.

Notification Of New Values Due Soon

Andover residents should be learning soon about the new values placed on their property following the revaluation of the town by the P.R.C. Jacobs Co.

Assessor William Russell said this week that the representative of the state department of corporation and taxation had been in Andover the past week reviewing the work and making an overall field examination of work performed by Jacobs. Russell is now awaiting a report from the state relative to acceptance of the project.

If everything is satisfactory, then taxpayers will be notified of the new property values, now anticipated within the next few weeks. The Jacobs company will then schedule hearings over a three-week period for property owners to discuss the findings, before they are finalized, the total town valuation determined and the tax rate formally set.

Planning Grant Is Received

Acting Town Manager Anthony Torrisi formally signed acceptance of federal and state funds for the final planning of the Riverina Road sewer pumping station this week.

The town has received $263,862 from the federal government and $67,016 from the state in the step 2 grant for the project which now allows engineers to proceed with the final planning stage.

The project is to replace the station which pumps sewage to the greater Lawrence Sanitary District plant in North Andover following a course along the Shawsheen River.

Public Works Director Robert E. McQuade will be going to Washington sometime in either late September or October in an effort to secure step 3 funding which is the actual construction costs of the new station. McQuade met with representatives of Congressman James Shannon's office this week with respect to the Capitol meeting as well as taking steps to insure and move up the final stage funding. Also being worked on is the obtaining of commitments from the state for that portion of the final funding before the director goes to Washington.

Contract For New Units Being Reviewed

A contractor has been selected for the new 40-unit elderly housing project to be built at Grandview Terrace.

Andover Housing Authority Director Thomas Walsh said this week that a Wakefield firm was the low bidder on the project, and is currently going through the final review process by the state housing authority before the contract is signed and work begun.

Walsh said that it is anticipated that work could begin by the end of August on the new project which will overlook the East Junior High playing fields and be adjacent to the present Grandview Terrace elderly units.

The project is estimated to cost $1,400,000 and monthly rent will be in the vicinity of $95.

Three New Patrolmen To Be Confirmed

Three new patrolmen are expected to be confirmed by the selectmen when the board meets for its regularly scheduled meeting Monday night at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall conference room.

Acting Town Manager Tony Torrisi said this week he is also hoping to arrange for John Begley, fiscal advisor from the New England Merchants Bank, to be on hand to discuss bonding for the school building program.

Torrisi said he is hoping Begley can advise them about the bond market in general, the pros and cons of going out to bid now versus later and the advantages of the different maturity schedules, as well as offer his opinion on where the interest rates are headed.

Some selectmen expressed concern this week that the town would be able to sell bonds at 9½ percent interest, when the prime rates are so much higher.

Equipment To Cut Power Cost

Bon Secours Hospital expects to save approximately $60,000 in energy costs this year through its recent installation of a new centrifugal steam absorption chiller.

According to Ted Rademacher, the hospital's director of maintenance, the chiller is a piece of equipment that cools the water that is pumped through the air conditioning system in the hospital's acute care area.

The chiller, which previously ran on oil, now uses electricity as its energy source.

"This switch-over from oil to electricity will aid the hospital in combating the spiraling costs of oil," says Rademacher. Beginning operation in the early part of July, the chiller will be carefully monitored by its manufacturer and the hospital's maintenance staff to assure its efficiency monetarily and operationally.

According to Rademacher, the use of the centrifugal chiller is just one of the many cost-saving measures instituted over the past years by the hospital. Through an ongoing preventive maintenance and conservation program, the hospital has been able to reduce its oil consumption substantially.

Between fiscal year 1975 and fiscal year 1980 alone a reduction of 169,560 gallons was achieved, thereby saving the hospital approximately $79,834. Also accomplished last year was a switch-over to energy efficient lighting throughout the hospital reducing the number of kilowatt hours used in fiscal year 1980.

Other hospital energy-saving methods have included the installation of thermal panes of glass in the hospital's oldest building, and the reduction of steam pressure produced throughout the hospital.

Leonardo Da Vinci is believed to have invented the scissors.

Homer Prints

Some 35 Winslow Homer woodblock prints and the Gustave Dore woodcuts from the "London Pilgrimage" of 1872 are featured at the Geraci Galleries, 6 South St., Rockport, this summer. The Homer prints, from Harper's Weekly and other publications between 1859 and 1874, are generally "open" with sunlight and space. The Dore works show London as a city of "dreadful night," where factory and mill workers lived in slumlocked horror.

ACT To Present 'Damn Yankees'

The desire for regained youth, purchased at the expense of one's own soul, is the focal point of the award-winning musical comedy "Damn Yankees" that will be presented by the Andover Community Theatre on Aug. 7, 8, 14, and 15, at the Andover East Junior High School on Bartlet Street.

"Damn Yankees" is based on the novel "The Year the Yankees Lost the Pennant" by Douglass Wallop, with music and lyrics by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross and book by George Abbott and Douglass Wallop.

This musical comedy version of the Faust legend is the first play to make a hit of a baseball story. The plot centers on Joe Boyd, a fanatic, middleaged Washington Senator's fan who continuously rants and raves against the Yankees—and the rest of the ball clubs—who are clobbering the Senators. In an impulsive oath, he states that he would sell his soul if he could stop "those damn Yankees." A happily cynical Devil appears, played by Scott Hilse, and transforms Joe Boyd into the young, phenomenal long-ball hitter, Joe Hardy, played by Andy Frankel, who becomes the sensation of the league. As a safety precaution to keep Joe in line, the Devil introduces him to Lola, his sure-fire temptress, played by Maureen Brackett, who tries to distract Joe from thinking about his wife, Meg, played by Claire Valcourt.

The supporting characters are Joe Boyd, played by William Joubert; Benny Van Buren, manager of the Washington Senators, played by Ron Wackowski, and the most unbelievable ballplayers in the American League: Smokey, played by Jim Mercuri; Rocky, played by Jay Winnick; Linville, played by Scott Flaherty; Henry, played by Andrew Roehr; Sohovik, played by Chris DiGrazia; Bouley, played by Rick Heislein and Mickey, played by Steve Daly. Gloria Thorpe, a sports writer whose sole aim is to determine the real identity of the new baseball player, is played by Janet Leonard. Also featured are June Connor as Sister, Steve Longo as Mr. Welch and Janet Fisk as Doris.

The producer is Joni Coleman and the director is Thomas A. Kirkman. Musical direction is by Kimberly J. Enders and choreography by Jackie Casey. The stage manager is Pam LeMieux.

"Damn Yankees" is being produced in conjunction with the Department of Community services and will be presented at 8 p.m. all four nights. Tickets may be purchased at the Department of Community

Reports From The Playgrounds

Ballardvale

Monday was a mellow day at the Ballardvale playground. Most of the day was spent creating an original Monopoly board using playgrounders' names. Wednesday was the Peanut Carnival at Central Park. Michelle Bolin, Jodi Jangro, Sean Cassidy and Cindy Sherry helped run the game booth and concession stand. Thursday Jodi Jangro and Cindy Sherry worked on a giant playground banner to welcome everyone to good sports next week. Shannon Cassidy, Nathan Roman and Tracey and Wendy Townsend really got into a game of Duck, Duck Goose. Shawsheen playground made a surprise visit. The week ended with another famous Ballardvale cookout.

Bancroft

Monday started with a bang with a monster maze thanks to Garrett Day, Steve Parochiack and Michele Soreff. The daring participants were Greg Debeer, Ryan McMannus, Melissa and Stephanie Letch. Tuesday everyone helped make exciting sponge toss for Peanut Carnival. Participants were Debra Soreff, Micky D. and Julie Cutler. Peanut Carnival was a huge success thanks to the help of Jasmine M., Jordy Wilner and Jamie Hymie on the sponge throw. Jimmy, Johnny Saalfrank, Steven Wrigley and Andrew McMannus went on an exciting bike trip Thursday. A great time was had by all on the Friday's Hawaiian Day

Sanborn

The rain on the fourth Monday of playground was brightened by the colorful ribbons created in preparation for annual Parent's Day (Tuesday—the last week of playground). The four-square tournaments continue to delight all the kids.

Two crafts occupied the "Sanborners" attention all week—decoupage and leather stitchings. Amy Pierro and Una Gauthier created super key rings while Leigh Dellechiaie made a picture frame. Billy Morris made a convenient comb case. Stephanie Juo and Beth Cronin put together heart purses necessary for holding their precious "ice cream man money." Hit & Run and Crab Soccer are now becoming the school favorites, thanks to Jeff Kuo and Mike Giamassi.

"Peanuts, peanuts, peanuts" was all the kids could eat and think about at the Peanut Carnival held last Wednesday. Playgrounders from all over came to enjoy the games, prizes and refreshments. Sanborn's challenging miniature golf and gourmet popcorn drew lots of spectators as well as participants.

Valiant tries by Scott Eggert and Brad Cronin in various sport activities such as kickball, bombardment, and catch-a-fly display the general enthusiasm at Sanborn. Black Magic etchings will continue to decorate the art gallery. The weekly cookout is sure to bring hungry appetites as a Good Sports competition is planned to be held at Ballardvale playground.

Shawsheen

The fourth week at Shawsheen was a fun time. All the children had a really good time at the Peanut Carnival. On Tuesday the children brought their stuffed animals for a stuffed animal show. Thursday a groupe went for a short bike hike that turned into a cross country trek, visiting

Playgrounds

The picnic was held here instead of going to Rec Park. Michell Doucette, Aron Johnson, Chip Curdo got into some serious jungle gym play while Mike Henry and Mark Edlesburg ate their lunch from a bird's eye view on top of the lower.

Tuesday Amanda Smith, Kim Smith and Leighann Catanzaro made beautiful necklaces and Scott Henry and Joshua Russo made rings. Then Betsy Frandenburg and Keley Henry won the contest for sponge toss design, which were used at the Peanut Carnival.

Wednesday was the Peanut Carnival in Central Park. We would like to thank all the mothers who helped make the bake sale such a success. Also a big thanks to all the kids, especially Steve Smith, Lori Philbin, Kim Philbin and Becky Berry who volunteered their heads to the sponge toss, making it the highlight of the carnival.

Thursday was a bike hike to Rose Glen Dairy. Andy Frankenberger and Mark Edelsberg were the strong riders of the day, although everyone wanted to flatten out the hill on Andover Street.

Friday was clash day and punk rock day with music dancing and punking out. Next week there'll be Good Sports on Wednesday and a day with Sanborn on Thursday, followed by a talent show on Friday, when all the stars of South will be shining. But talent show or not, the stars are always out at South playground!

Stevens Grant To Institute

The Essex Institute of Salem announces the receipt of four grants which relate directly to the museum and publications programs. From the Trustees of the Stevens Foundation in North Andover, the institute has been pledged $5,000 to assist in meeting the costs of an illustrated booklet describing their outstanding textile collection. Curator Anne Farnam will be the compiler of this publication.

From the National Endowment for the Arts, the institute has been granted $4,220 toward the publication of an illustrated booklet treating the portrait collection, and $10,000 to aid in the completion of the Plummer Hall attic storage area which was partially renovated in 1979 with National Endowment for the Humanities and private matching funds. The awarding of these grants will allow the institute to continue its museum booklet series (four have already been published) and to persist in its efforts to improve the extent and quality of storage for its museum artifacts.

The Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities has awarded a $1,000 grant to the institute to hire consultants to assess the conservation needs of the photograph collection in the library.

pher Martin, Jenny and Judy Books, David Stewart and Sarah Perry were some of the keychain artists. Gimp braiding was also a popular craft this week. Gimp superstars included Adam Ruma, Muffy Morrow and Meredith Kehil. Wednesday was Peanut Carnival. West children had a super time throwing wet sponges at their favorite staff members. Thanks go to Leslie Wilkinson, Maura McGrail, Brendan McGrail and John Lehigh for their special help at the carnival. Week four brought numerous sports events with it. Some of the outstanding athletes included Mike Lane, Matt Abernathy, Bill O'Brien. The winners of the Halloween contest were Most Original—John Lahiff; Funniest—Micaela Corkery; Best Overall—Lestie Wilkenson and Jennifer Milne; Cutest—Erin Lahiff. Thursday the K-2 kids had a trip to Pumps Pond. Jennifer Segal, Layne Whitley, Carol Reid, Lestie, Dawn Spencer, Bobby Charest and all the others who went had a good time. Friday was the first t-shirt day. Playgrounders wore their favorite t-shirts to show off and also created their own t-shirts with tie dye art. The day ended with the usual Friday cookout and summer surprise summer four.

Bancroft Pre-School

Bancroft Pre-school was BEAR-able last Tuesday as they hosted a Teddy Bear Tea Party. Edward Bear (A.K.A. Winnie-the-Pooh) was the honored guest and was joined by many of his bear friends. We listened to "The House at Pooh Corner" and then served bear cooking and honey lemonade. It was an occasion!

Wednesday everyone visited the Peanut Carnival and had a super time playing all the games, especially the sponge toss. Thursday was cooking day. A huge batch of "GORP" was made and later there was a scavenger hunt. Friday everyone's birthday was celebrated by playing pin-the-tail on the donkey and musical games. To top it all off peanut butter sandwiches were made. A sprinkler party was held to cool off. We said "goodbye" to all the friends we have made during the last four weeks and are looking forward to making more in the week to come. Next week a "come as you are" day and a picnic is planned to welcome our new little campers.

Sanborn Pre-School

In the closing week of the fulfilled session, Sanborn Pre-school went to an exciting Peanut Carnival where Robert Derba won the most peanuts. A sprinkler party was enjoyed, paper weights were made and a closing parent's day was held. We are looking forward to next session which starts next week.

Dean Eastman, head winter track coach at Governor Dummer Academy, is currently in Mexico conducting clinics in track and field techniques to a selected group of 100 Mexican coaches. Never Kenneled Your Dog Before???

"About 1965 I went in search of a place to board my 3 dogs. I didn't want them in a hospital - or a cage - most kennels caged their dogs and conditions were repulsive to me. I cancelled my vacation. I had a small building that I converted with "stalls and runs," Cost (those days) $800.00 - capacity 11 dogs. I put in this building what I wanted my own dogs to have. That was the beginning of TEE-EMM'S KENNEL. Capacity now 513 Dogs and Cats (separate floors.) We are now putting up a new modern building (our 5th) that will be completed this summer - it will be SUPER BEAUTIFUL. We are indeed very proud of it and a dream has come true."

A swim and gym program offered to four and five year olds will consist of one half hour spent in the pool learning basic water adjustment skills, safety skills and progressive swimming skill, followed by a half hour on different apparatus, rhythm, tumbling, games and physical exercise. Classes will meet Monday and Wednesday early afternoon, or Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

Instructional swimming classes for three to five year olds on Tuesday and Thursday early afternoon will be under the supervision of qualified instructors.

Japanese Beetles

Japanese Beetles, first documented in the U.S. in southern New Jersey in 1916, have spread to 23 states and are steadily increasing their sphere of operations.

These destructive garden pests have a voracious appetite and eagerly devour at least 275 different varieties of flowers, plants, vegetables, even tree blossoms. They're particularly fond of roses, and since they're alien to North America, have few natural enemies here.

NOTICE OF SCHEDULE CHANGES

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

A new schedule will take effect on MONDAY, AUGUST 3. The purpose of the schedule change is to make the operation of your bus service as efficient and dependable as possible.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

- Most routes have new midday times because the weekday and Saturday lunch break has been reduced to 15 or 20 minutes. Some routes have new start and finish times.
SEE YOUR SCHEDULE AND CHECK YOUR TIME BEFORE YOU USE THE BUS.
- Route 38-Tower Hill, will be combined with Route 35-Water Street. Your schedule shows you the direction buses will run on weekdays and Saturdays. If you have been riding through to Tower Hill on the Colonial Heights bus, YOU MUST NOW TRANSFER from Route 39-Colonial Heights to a Tower Hill/Water Street bus on the Essex Street side of the Intown Mall. Also, Milton Street has been deleted from the Tower Hill route so that buses will run Lowell and Ames Street for both outbound and inbound trips.
- On Saturday, using some routes on the last trip from the Intown Mall will require that you take another bus. For example, the 5:40 p.m. trip from the Intown Mall to Prospect Hill will require that you take the Lawrence Street bus, which will run Prospect Hill after leaving Bon Secours Hospital. SEE YOUR SCHEDULE for other routes where this will be required.

Transit Information
685-1560

The Authority is placing more emphasis and funds on the maintenance and cleaning of buses to improve reliability and appearance. Therefore only very limited telephone information service will be available, so please use your schedule more often. The Authority is currently planning more detailed and informative schedules to help you use Authority bus service. Your cooperation in the weeks and months ahead will be appreciated.

Schedules are available on all MVRTA buses, at many Lawrence Intown stores and banks, City and Town Halls and Libraries, all branches of the Arlington Trust Company and several stores in the Methuen Mall.

Now You're Cooking

Lately the Townsman has become a well read newspaper at American Airlines and some of the gals have given me a few terrific recipes to share with you.

From Connie Vivolo:

Seafood Singapore

1/4 cup chopped chives
2 oz. butter
2 oz flour
1 pt. milk
3 egg yolks
1/2 cup sherry
1 lb scallop shrimp crabmeat or lobster.
Saute chives in butter. Strain butter into another pan and cook it with flour for 1 minute. Stir in the milk, add egg yolks, sherry, cooked chives and salt to taste add equal parts seafood and serve over rice.

Zucchini Quiche

3 cups thinly sliced zucchini
1/4 cup oil
1/2 cup parmesan cheese
1/2 cup chopped onion
4 beaten eggs
1 cup bisquick
1/2 tsp. salt - a dash of pepper few shakes of garlic powder
Saute zucchini with onion in oil till limp. Transfer to 13x9 baking dish. Beat remaining ingredients well and pour over all. Bake 25 minutes at 350°. Cut into squares and serve.

Here's a delicious dip especially with the fresh summer vegetables available now.

From Sandy Carr:
2/3 cup sour cream
2/3 cup mayo
1 tsp dried dill weed
1 tsp. Beau Monde seasoning
1 tbl chopped parsley
1 tbl fine diced scallions

Mix well and chill several hours before serving.

Sandy also has a fabulous crabmeat dip I know you will like.

Crabmeat Dip

1-8 oz pkg cream cheese
3 tbsp chopped onion
1 7/2 oz can crabmeat
3 tbsp mayo
1 tbsp milk
1/2 to 1 tsp horse radish slivered almonds
salt pepper to taste

Mix all except almonds. Bake 350° for 1/2 hour until bubbly. Garnish with almonds serve with party rye bread or crackers.

Here is a delicious casserole from Carol Rosa that takes only minutes to prepare and tastes like a big deal.

Broccoli Casserole

2 well beaten eggs
1 can cream of mushroom soup

2 tbsp chopped onion
1 cup mayo
1 cup grated Swiss cheese
2 pkg. frozen chopped broccoli
Mix all ingredients with thawed broccoli. Pour into greased casserole bake 250° for 1 hour.

Barbara Fraci has a great recipe for Rice Pilaf that my family loves.

1/4 cup butter
1 cup chopped celery
3/4 cup chopped onion
1 cup raw rice
1 envelope chicken noodle soup mix
2 1/2 cups water
1 tsp salt
1/4 tsp each pepper
sage, thyme

Heat butter and saute onion, celery and rice till rice is golden brown. Stir in remaining ingredients. Cover and simmer 15 minutes. Remove from heat and let stand 10 minutes before serving.

And finally from one of my shy friends, Niki a truly easy and delicious dessert.

Coconut Custard Pie

4 eggs
3/4 cup sugar
1 stick margarine
1 cup coconut
2 cups cold milk
1/2 cup flour
1 tsp vanilla

Put all in blender. Turn on high speed and count to ten. Pour into greased 9 inch pie plate. Bake at 350° for 40 minutes. Delicious!

This month I have been in Los Angeles and staying at the Statler Hilton in downtown L.A. The staff there is especially nice to those of us at American Airlines and last week I was able to obtain chef Edouard Beckers recipe for the Guacamole served at the "Happy Hour" in the Beef Barron Restaurant.

4 ripe avacados
1/2 cup grated onion
1 cup chopped tomatoes
1 tsp. tabasco
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 tb Worcester sauce

Mash all with a fork and refrigerate a few hours before serving. Chef Edouard places one avacado pit in the mixture to prevent it from turning brown before serving and he tops the Guacamole with a healthy dollop of sour cream prior to serving. Top that off with Hilton's bartender's famous frozen Marguerita and you have a real treat.

Hilton's Golden Dream

1 1/2 oz gold tequila (regular will do)
1 oz triple sec
1 1/2 oz sweet n'sour mix
2 dashes Roses lime juice
2 cups crushed ice

Place all in blender and mix on high till you get a snowball effect. Serve in long stem glass with salted rim garnished with a lime slice and wait for the Ahs. Delicious!

Kiddies Corner

Delicious Playdough!

Everyone scrub hands. To 1/2 jar peanut butter add enough powdered milk and honey until the consistency of playdough. Put on a paper plate or waxed paper for the kids to mold into shapes. Watch the fun. Provide some toothpicks and you'll see some birthday cakes being made. A perfect chance to have their cake and eat it too.

No Bake Cookies

Combine 1/2 cup Karo Syrup with 1/2 cup peanut butter. Stir in 3 cupfuls Rice Crispies, shape into balls and enjoy.

Professional Touch

This month's professional touch is presented by Chef Ming Ling of the Andover Jade Restaurant in Shawsheen Plaza.

Jade Spare Ribs

1 16 oz jar raisin sauce (available in Chinese grocery store)
1/2 cup sugar
1/8 cup salt
1/4 cup red wine
1 garlic clove, mashed

Mix all together, marinate 4 hours or more and cook slowly on barbeque grill for 1/2 hour, turning every so often for even color. Easy and excellent.

Thank You Chef Ling

Meet The Manager

Meet John Anton. He is the owner-manager of John Anton Cleaners in Andover and North Andover, independent of the other Anton cleaners you see in the area since buying the Andover stores in 1963.

Raised in Lowell, John went on to join the marines upon graduation. There he mastered the art of Judo and served time on Okinawa. When he returned home he began assisting his father in his tailoring business. Mr. Anton Sr. didn't know it then, but he was carving a future for his son and today John is one of the leaders in his field. His specialty is spot removal and from 1963 to 1975 he taught the art of spot removal throughout the North and South Shores.

Today John resides happily with his wife Evelyn and son Chuck in North Tewksbury. Chuck incidentally is the assistant manager at John Anton's and plans eventually to expand the business.

John is the present Director of the Boys Club and is an active member of the Rotary Club and the Masons. He also shares his time with the Men of Merrimack, The Bon Secours Guild, the Marine Corp League and St. John's Mens Guild of Lowell.

With all of that, one does wonder where he finds the time for specialized spot removal - but the sign over his door guarantees double your money back if someone else can remove a spot he can't!

Points of Interest

I have a few letters requesting the following recipes:

Doris Lindsay's Crazy Mixed-Up Pie
Mary Meyer's Chicken Casserole
Honey's Maryland Steak Subs

If you ladies have the time would you share those recipes with us?

A towel dropped over the top of the bathroom door will prevent a youngster from closing the door and locking himself in.

If you store your beach toys in mesh bags you can give them a dip before leaving the beach and the sand stays behind.

I've received many letters asking if I know what happened to Evan Themalis, the manager at the Shawsheen Plaza Demoulas. Evan was transferred to the Burlington Store last month and will miss his Andover friends.

I'm sorry to report that the kitchen at the Andover Meat Shop is still not opened due to some minor technicalities. Damien has promised to call me the minute they are ready to begin preparing all those promised treats for us.

Next month I have some great recipes for you that I have been receiving on canning. So stock up on your Mason jars and if you have some ideas you'd like to share with us, drop me a line here at the TOWNSMAN. We love hearing from you. Hope your having a fun summer!

Its case is made of the finest mahogany inlaid with matched crotch grain mahogany veneer.

Its natural beauty is enhanced with no fewer than thirteen finishing steps.

The movement is made to Howard Miller specifications in West Germany. And it oscillates on two hand-honed jeweled pivots for greater accuracy.

of annual land and sea exercises designed to emphasize command and control of military forces in a simulated combat environment. Involving more than 27,000 Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps personnel, the exercise was conducted at Camp Lejeune, N.C., Fort Bragg, N.C., and Shaw Air Force Base, S.C.

The three-week exercise simulated military action between opposing land, sea and air forces, and included an airborne assault, naval mine warfare, harbor control, runway repair and tactical air support operations

First Lion Tamer

The first lion tamer was "Manchester Jack", lion keeper at Wombell's Menagerie, a travelling show that toured England during the first half of the 19th century. His first act, performed in 1835, consisted of sitting on the back of an aged lion called Nero and prying its mouth open.

Busing Limits Dangerous, Impractical

To The Editor Of The Townsman:

I believe that the extension of the busing limits is a very dangerous and impractical method of reducing Andover's budget. In fact, I would like to see MORE children bused. I could accept the change if Andover had some type of public transportation or even useable sidewalks. (Those we do have disappear at the first snow fall and do not reappear until the spring thaw. Are there funds for plowing sidewalks?) The physical features of our town are totally unacceptable when considering an increase in the number of children walking to any of the schools. The major roads are too heavily traveled during the hours when the children would be walking. The winding secondary roads are such that two passing cars leave only enough room for one small child to stand sideways without falling into the crumbling edges of the road bed or onto a slippery snow bank. The extra traffic caused by private cars to and around each school would also increase the risks, especially where new construction is in progress.

It is distressing that our children's safety should be jeopardized since:

Chapter 71, Section 68 of the Massachusetts General Laws requires that:

...local school committees provide free busing to pupils who live more than two miles their schools.

...the Commonwealth will reimburse local school committees for students bused any distance more than 1.5 miles.

And that in an advisory opinion on student fees written January 19, 1981, the Massachusetts Department of Education states that:

...additional busing which is part of a school's regular curriculum, such as transportation for field trips, also must be provided to pupils free of charge. (I don't remember any transportation-free field trips)

...a school committee is empowered to charge for transportation for extracurricular activities, such as athletic teams, bands and cheerleaders. (Can you imagine our teams being asked to pay their own transportation to a game? I would bet a "Make It In Massachusetts" T-shirt there would be an uproar if our football team had to forfeit a game due to the lack of busing funds.)

In view of that thought, it's logical to expect a strong stand being taken by every Andover citizen over the issue of safety vs. insufficient funds for busing.

Even the school buildings are not equipped with adequate facilities to handle the increased amount of outerwear which would accompany each new walker. Shared lockers can barely hold the students' books let alone the extra parkas, etc. If a locker is stuffed so the door cannot be closed securely, the probability is that the contents of that locker will be "ripped off" before the day is over. The security of bicycles chained to racks is also questionable.

Proposition 2½ has awakened many citizens to the fact that they should know exactly what the issues are before casting their ballot. The people of Andover have always been reasonable and conservative in their budget planning and have succeeded in getting top quality for their dollar; yet Andover is being penalized, particularly in the area of education, due to the naivete of many voters. I pray that Andover's reputation for having a great school system will not suffer too badly in the coming year. It would be interesting to see the results of a new vote, now that more people realize that—YES voters, this proposition will affect you, your town services and your town government; and YES voters, the county and state governments will still enjoy the luxuries of the "good old days" at Andover's expense.

I sincerely hope that you will reconsider and not extend the busing limits.

Marilyn McParland

Concern For Safety

To The Editor Of The Townsman:

This letter is to express our concern about the recent letter we received from the South School P.T.O. stating that our children would not be bused this coming school year. We would like to have clarified how the children living ten houses away on the same street will be bused and our children will not. Our children would have to walk past their homes enroute to South School.

We do not object to our children walking as long as we can be assured that sidewalks will be constructed along Andover

Street prior to the opening of the 1981 school year. Also, that a school crossing guard will be on duty at the railroad tracks and along the river.

When looking for a home some three years ago we first chose the school system and then a home in that community. We are appalled that a town such as Andover has so little concern for the safety of their children.

The education of our children is of vital importance to us but their safety is our prime interest. Have you ever walked along Andover Street after a snow storm, following the plowing? We have, and as mature adults found it extremely hazardous, but now you are saying it is safe enough for our seven and ten-year-old children!

If the town cannot afford to bus our children to South School then why can't they walk to Sanborn School which is a much safer route. All that would be needed if this change were to be made, is a crossing guard at Dascomb Road. We have been informed that in the past this is where the children from Bannister Road attended school.

I know the town must retrench but feel the safety of the children of the town is certainly the wrong place to start.

Disregard For Some

To The Editor Of The Townsman:

The solution to the shortage in rental housing is not brought about by restricting or banning conversion to condominiums, but rather allowing further development of multi-family housing. The town is continually providing multi-family housing for the elderly and low-middle income families and presently has 216 units in inventory, and should be applauded for its endeavors. The units, incidentally, are not exclusively for residents of Andover. Why then the complete disregard for the other members of our community?

Back to conversions: It seems that we are overlooking the fact that the disposition of one's property is a right and privilege afforded by the Constitution and Bill of Rights. This fact has been upheld by the Attorney General who has denied the town of Andover to adopt its proposed ban on condominium conversion. It seems unlikely that the judiciary will deprive any American of his inalienable right of property ownership.

workshop June 22-July 31 at the University of Colorado, Boulder.

The program, sponsored by the National Science Foundation involved high-ability high school students in an intensive problem-solving research effort similar to a college research program.

Participants studied energy engineering and alternative energy sources, particularly solar heating and cooling of buildings.

Boynton attends Andover High School.

Sales, Profit Increase At Gillette

Sales and profit from operations of The Gillette Company rose in the second quarter and for the six months ended June 30, 1981. Although pretax and net income declined for both periods due primarily to exchange losses, the quarterly dividend was increased by 10.5 percent, to an annual rate of $2.10 per share. Colman M. Mockler, Jr., chairman and chief executive officer, said recently.

Sales for the three months ended June 30, 1981, were $583,171,000 compared with $570,542,000 for the same period in 1980, an increase of 2 percent. Profit from operations was $78,198,000, up 10 percent from $71,346,000 a year earlier. Pretax income was $42,085,000, a decrease of 29 percent from $59,682,000 in 1980. Consolidated net income was $23,258,000, a decrease of 31 percent from $33,683,000 in the same period last year. Earnings per share of $.77 compared with $1.12 a year earlier.

For the six months ended June 30, 1981, sales rose 4 percent to $1,171,399,000, compared with $1,121,404,000 in 1980. Profit from operations was $163,483,000, up 9 percent from $150,034,000 the year before. Pretax income was $100,668,000, down 18 percent from $122,711,000 for the same period in the prior year. Consolidated net income was $55,481,000, a decrease of 21 percent from $70,335,000 in 1980. Earnings per share of $1.84 compared with $2.33 the year before.

The effect of net exchange losses in the second quarter was equivalent to 52 cents per share, compared with 7 cents per share in the second quarter of 1980 and 81 cents per share for the six months, compared with 11 cents per share for the year earlier. If a current proposal of the Financial Accounting Standards Board is adopted, there would be a positive effect on the company's reported earnings for 1981, since a major portion of net exchange losses would not be charged to income, but would be reflected as an adjustment directly to stockholders' equity.

Sales and operating profits of Gillette North America in the second quarter rose moderately, and for the six months were above those of the same period in the prior year.

Gillette International's sales were slightly ahead and operating profits were well above in the quarter, compared with last year.

Question Arises On Location For Senior Citizen Lunches

By Linda S. Corbett

There seems to be some question about where senior citizen lunches will be coming from, come fall.

Tom Powers, chairman of the Council

Services Offices Moving

The Department of Community Services offices are in the process of moving from the Stowe school to the Shawsheen school today.

The office personnel will be in their new quarters on Friday, but telephone hookup may not be completed until early next week. The office number remains the same, 475-5045.

on Aging, told the selectmen Monday night that he had heard a "song and dance" some weeks ago that West Elementary School, where the elders have been going for their lunches for the past couple of years, will not be available to them. West will have so many more students this fall, he had been told, that the lunch "hour" will be spread out over a longer period of time. If the senior citizens were to continue going there, he said, they would have to eat before 11 a.m. or after 1:30.

He said he had not heard anything from the school department about a resolution, so the selectmen directed Acting Town Manager Tony Torrisi to contact Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert to work out a place to carry on the noontime program.

"Through the grapevine," Powers said he had heard that Shawsheen School, closed now as an elementary, was going to be used for a training program for teachers, so we "can't even go down there as we had planned."

Selectman Jerry Silverman said that since both junior high schools should be declining in enrollment, it "obviously won't take as long to get through their lines." He said the last pupils should be through about 12:30.

West Jr. High would be an "ideal" spot for senior citizens, he said, because they could come in and out of the cafeteria without affecting any other part of the school building. There isn't even a stair problem there, he said, as in some of the other schools.

Furthermore, Silverman said, he knew the principal "would do everything he could to make them comfortable."

Colleague Donn Byrne suggested that they contact School Chairman Joe Finn on the matter, and Powers agreed. "The school committee may not even be aware of the problem," he said.

Powers reported that 50 senior citizens have been taking advantages of the summer lunch program, still at West Elementary School, and another 28 meals-on-wheels are being delivered.

The numbers will increase, he said, come fall.

West Elementary School is expecting nearly a thousand pupils this fall because of the closing of Shawsheen School. Shawsheen will now house the administrative offices, as well as special needs and others that used to occupy Stowe and Jackson Schools. Both of the latter are about to be demolished, to make way for the school building program.

Vogt Is Named Inspector

Robert C. Vogt Monday night became the town's first full-time plumbing and gas inspector.

After he was introduced by Building Inspector Sam DiSalvo and "strongly recommended" by Acting Manager Tony Torrisi, Vogt got the unanimous vote of the board of selectmen.

He'll start Monday.

Town meeting approved the full-time position in June; the duties had previously been covered on a part-time basis by outside contractors.

A long-time resident of Andover, Vogt learned the plumbing trade from his father at age 15, and has had a plumbing business here.

Torrisi said this week, however, that since Vogt will be a full-time inspector, there is "no potential for working in the same business in Andover."

The selectmen Monday night also welcomed to the meeting a group of DeMolays from the Essex Chapter, who were attending as part of Government Day requirements.

Special Units Are Planned

Schematic plans for a housing for the handicapped building will be submitted to the office of community development Friday by the Andover Housing Authority.

AHA Director Thomas Walsh said this week that the building, to be constructed on property near the Veteran's Housing project off Morton Street, will cost an estimated $153,000.

The single building will contain six to eight units and the costs are increased by the number of items which must be installed to accommodate handicapped persons, such as ramps, signalling devices for the hearing impaired, etc.

The particular Andover project is a team effort, being done in cooperation with Fidelity House, Walsh said.

Midsummer Commentary

A couple of thoughts as the summer season moves along and parents attempt to relieve the boring stage of the youngsters which sets in about this time.

Last week, Andover's selectmen came up with a new approach to the Lowell Junction interchange problem which has been on the back burner at the state and federal level for about 20 or more years.

It was suggested that by restricting traffic in the Ballardvale and Lowell Junction areas, possibly truckers and industry might unite to put a little more pressure on federal and state officials to get an interchange built from Route 93 into the junction industrial area.

The thought, of course is a good one, albeit probably impossible to accomplish.

Admittedly the residential streets in the 'Vale area are not conducive to handling heavy traffic. Town officials have been aware of this for years and have made considerable effort to get the junction to 93 connector built.

But restricting the type of traffic which can use the streets is next to impossible.

What is proposed is to have the heavy trucking come off Route 93 and use the Route 125 access to get to the industrial area, thereby bypassing the residential streets.

This throws some of the problem into Wilmington which, understandably would not be that acceptable to our neighbors.

Also, truckers will use the easiest and quickest access to the companies they are to service based on energy costs and time involvement.

So, while the thought may be a good one, the impracticality may preclude its consideration.

The only sure way of obtaining an access route into the industrial area is by continued pressure by local officials, with the assistance of state and congressional delegations on the proper authorities to get past the study stages and into some actual decision-making and construction work.

They had an excuse 20 or more years ago when there was no industry in this particular area. Now, in 1981, there is little, if any, industrially-zoned land left in the junction and the residents in the Ballardvale area are long overdue for relief.

Emergency Assistance

On another note, it is pertinent to point out to Andover residents the quality of service they receive from the Andover fire department in times of emergency.

For the most part, firefighters are a welcome sight when there is a fire on the property or nearby.

But one of the more valuable things provided on a 24-hour basis is the emergency medical service provided by the firefighters.

As an example, one day last week, the department was called for assistance to three rather serious medical emergencies within a half-hour period. After the ambulance and crew responded to the first call, those on duty at the station, responded to the other two and provided emergency assistance while waiting for ambulances to come from North Andover and North Reading to transport the victims to area hospitals.

The firefighters are trained emergency medical technicians and while the properly-equipped ambulance was awaited, the firefighters were able to provide the necessary treatment and comfort to the victims.

Similar instances have occurred on other occasions, with the firefighters providing a valuable and sometimes life-saving service to residents of the community.

In mentioning these things in an appreciative manner, it is done so also to point out that when the fire apparatus is passing by some time, it should be borne in mind that it may not be for a fire, but rather a response to a medical emergency and a comforting sight to a family in need of assistance.

The new electric pump has been installed at Haggett's pond and was put into operation Thursday. The old steam pump will be discontinued and repaired for emergency use. The electric pump will serve as an experiment this year and some definite action will be taken at the annual town meeting next March when it is expected that the Board of Public Works will ask for either a new steam pump, a Deisel engine or to continue with an electric pump.

The water main on River Road will be extended from the present dead end at the Shattuck farm to the residence of Arthur Maddox and also Laurel Lane. The board of public works will also put up about 100 feet of wire fence on the playstead boundary line to keep the boys out of the Rasso property, where they have been doing damage to the garden crops.

Scholarships of three five dollar gold pieces, three two and a half dollar gold pieces and three one dollar bills will be awarded to the children in the Bradlee school having made the best records for the year and to the one showing the most improvement in their work for this scholastic year. The awards are being given by the Bradlee Mothers Club who are keenly interested in aiding their children along educational lines.

25 Years Ago — July 1956

Cheers and jeers marked the town manager legislative hearing Tuesday night. A highly-partisan crowd cheered on proponents of the plan but took quick and noisy offense at the methods of the legislators in drawing out the reasons for the manager plan here. There was no opposition voiced to the plan when it was called for by House Chairman Philip Quinn of Spencer.

Construction work on the West school addition may be completed in time for use in September. But Frank Kiernan of the Perley F. Gilbert associates has agreed with Superintendent Edward I. Erickson that it is an optimistic opinion.

The board of public works has adopted a new policy regarding citizens' visits to the board. The first Monday of the month will be reserved to see residents who have business with the board. The board said its increasing duties made it necessary to schedule visitors one night a month rather than seeing them at all times.

JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Hugel incident shows up holes in CIA's screeningBy JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON -- The resignation of CIA spymaster Max Hugel raises a problem that the CIA doesn't like to talk about. The security people simply missed some facts that they should have uncovered. And they're worried it could happen again.

Our sources tell us that the CIA relies too heavily on its famous lie-detector tests. The trouble with lie detectors is that they can be beaten. For example, Hugel insists that he did nothing wrong. If he honestly believed in his innocence, or if the right questions weren't asked, the lie detector wouldn't work.

Worse, the machine won't work if the person taking the test is a pathological liar. Yet this is the worst kind of person that an intelligence agency can employ.

There are other problems. The Central Intelligence Agency and the National Security Agency process an estimated 2,500 highly secret clearances annually. Yet they don't have the money and manpower to do a foolproof job of screening.

We've seen a top-secret memo which describes another weakness. Here's a direct quote: "CIA personnel policy is excessively bureaucratic." In plain English, this means that the security people have become bogged down in bureaucratic routines. They are more concerned about the procedures than about the purpose.

TRASHING IT: Meanwhile, getting rid of trash is a problem for every community. But for the intelligence community, trash disposal is a special problem. Intelligence agencies can't just call in the local garbage firm to haul away the tons of secret documents that are discarded every day. Who knows? The stuff might fall into the hands of a Kremlin spy (or a member of our staff).

One of the most sensitive intelligence outfits is the National Security Agency, whose job is to break codes and interpret information from spy satellites. NSA keeps an extremely low profile; in fact, its existence is virtually unknown outside of Washington.

But the people at NSA work hard. They produce literally tons of top-secret trash every working day. It's called "classified waste," and disposing of it is a continual headache.

In fact, the problem of discarding used-up secrets has become critical at the National Security Agency -- so critical that top officials have had to put out a call for volunteers to help destroy the agency's hush-hush paperwork.

But National Security Agency employees have balked at becoming paper shredders -- even at overtime pay. According to an internal Pentagon report, most employees refuse to volunteer for this menial work. Or if they do show up one time, they don't volunteer for another tour of duty.

So the NSA is having a terrible time disposing of its paperwork and the secrets just keep piling up.

SOCIAL SECURITY SNAFU: The Reagan administration wants to eliminate the so-called minimum Social Security benefit of $122 a month to save money for the ailing program. But Social Security officials are worried that the cutback could snarl the entire system. Here's why:

About two million Americans will be affected if the minimum benefit is eliminated. But it's going to take thousands of hours to find out who actually gets the benefits. The agency will use its personnel who normally work on routine claims to identify the Americans who receive the minimum payment.

But an internal memo at the agency claims that "beneficiaries in large numbers across the nation will be faced with reductions in benefits, overpayment notices and poor service." The memo also warns that the deterioration in service will probably last for "at least a year."

EXECUTIVE MEMO: What is a "non-positive termination"? That's the bureaucratic way of telling 23,000 workers under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act that they no longer have jobs. Instead of telling the employees that they were fired in a budget-cutting move, the bureaucrats call the pink slips "non-positive terminations."

-- The multimillion-dollar computer network that is supposed to warn the United States of an impending missile attack doesn't work quite right. The computer has sounded several false alarms since it was introduced 12 years ago. Now, government investigators say that even when the system is fully operational late this year, it will still be inadequate -- the whole shebang will probably have to be replaced by the end of the decade with another multimillion-dollar system.

-- While Haitian refugees keep turning up on American shores, the Navy is planning to send thousands of U.S. sailors to Haiti. The refugees are coming to this country to escape the poverty and oppression in their homeland. But the United States isn't planning to send an invasion force to the island. The Navy just wants to build a base there. The Haitian station could serve as a backup in case Cuban dictator Fidel Castro forces the Navy to abandon its operation at Guantanamo Bay. Haiti is considering the offer carefully. A U.S. naval base on the island could provide jobs and an economic shot in the arm for the impoverished island nation.

Camp Hosts Agganis All Stars

In its fourth consecutive year, the Andover Football Camp at Phillips Academy will offer two additional attractions over former years.

A twilight camp, the program introduces a special week for junior campers not yet of high school age to be held July 26-31, immediately preceding the Senior Week of Aug. 2-7. The Agganis All Star West squad will be sharing the academy's fields preparing for the annual game on Friday night, Aug. 7, in Lynn's Manning Bowl.

Coached this year by Jim Stehlin of Newburyport, Bill Tighe of Lexington, and Tom Caito of Chelmsford, the West will be represented by Jim DePiano of Andover, Mark Bardwell of Methuen, Jim Kronewetter of North Andover, Dave Speller of Lawrence, and Warren McNeil and Marco Vitozzi of North Reading.

The directors of the Andover Football Camp invite football coaches and fans to observe both the camp and the practices. There are still spaces available in the camp. Contact the Athletic Office at Phillips Academy or register on Sunday or Monday at 5 p.m. in the Borden Gymnasium.

The Museum Shop at the Boston Children's Museum offers books, crafts, musical instruments, kits, games, puzzles and a special Children's Shop. It's open during all museum public hours. Members get a 10 percent discount.

Cedardale Hosting Tourney

Tennis players are currently competing in a major New England Tennis Association tournament held at Cedardale Tennis & Swim Club. Tournament play began Monday morning with the finals scheduled for Thursday afternoon.

This year's tournament will host some 200 juniors from all over New England with vacationing players from Pittsburgh and Maryland. Many local favorites will be competing for top honors, including first seed in the girls 14's division, Christie Wood.

Converse ALL STAR sneakers is this year's tournament sponsor and all winners will be awarded new footwear.

Gold Ruthers Retain Lead

By Rick Harrison

Andover Gold continued its winning ways in recent days, chalking up two more lopsided victories to remain atop the Greater-Lawrence Babe Ruth (13-15 years) League standings.

Gold, increasing its league record to 15-2 and its overall ledger to 17-2, stretched its victory streak through 10 games by pasting South Lawrence East 13-3 and Prospect Hill 16-0 at the Andover High field.

That left Gold one game up on North Andover with one regular season contest remaining for both teams.

Gold was scheduled to battle South Lawrence West last Tuesday night, while North Andover (14-3) met Andover Blue last night.

Any combination of a Gold victory or a North Andover loss would give Andover the regular-season championship.

However, if the two teams finished with identical records, in all likelihood a special one-game playoff will be set up to determine the title.

Meanwhile, the league playoffs are scheduled to open next Monday evening with Andover Gold hosting Prospect Hill at Andover High (5:45 p.m.).

The playoffs will again be run under a double-elimination format, with six teams

Chiang In Tennis Tourney

Jeffrey S. Chiang of Andover has entered the USTA Boys' 12 National Tennis Championships, which will be held Aug. 2-8 at the Houston Racquet Club.

Oshman's Sporting Goods Company is the sponsor, and the Houston tennis Association, the Houston Ladies Tennis Association and the Houston Racquet Club are the presenters.

Each of the 17 United States Tennis Association sections can send their best 11- and 12-year-old boys to the competition. The number each can send is proportionate to their membership.

Many of the youngsters continue their tennis progress and become professionals when they are older. Past winners of this tourney, which has been held in several U.S. cities, have included Dick Stockton (1962-63); Brian Gottfried (1964); and Gene Mayer (1968). Jimmy Connors won the doubles with Gottfried in 1964.

Other Massachusetts entries are Matthew Stroyman, Newton; Jon Krane, West Newton; Leon Palandjian, Belmont; Jon

Howland, Wenham; and Michael Shyjan, Chelmsford.

There was also a possibility that the Andover Gold team would participate in the annual Lexington Invitational Tournament, which opens this Saturday and continues with single-elimination play Sunday, Wednesday (Aug. 5) and Sunday (Aug. 8).

Andover Gold, 13-3

Lefthander Billy Vickers chalked up his third straight victory, boosting his overall record to 5-2, as he scattered five hits and struck out 11 to keep Andover Gold in first place.

Andover Gold, meanwhile, put together an 11-hit attack that included timely two-run bashes by Rob Wilson, Steve Dougal and Scott Wilkins.

South Lawrence East inched ahead 1-0 in the top of the first when Phil Cutrona doubled to leftfield, and he eventually scored when losing pitcher, Phil Regan, walked and purposely got himself in a rundown between first and second base.

Gold rebounded with four runs in the bottom of the first, doing all the damage with one out. Kraig Burzlaff was nicked on the wrist by a pitch, stole second, and scored when Vickers ripped a single to centerfield.

Scott Zimmerman was also hit by a pitch. Steve Dougal stroked a run-scoring single, and Rob Wilson dropped a double into center that brought home two more runs.

Gold threatened in the second when Mark Lefebvre singled and Mark Grams walked, but that was the extent of the bid.

In the third Scott Zimmerman rapped a leadoff single, stole second and advanced to third on a poor catcher's throw, and made it 5-1 when he raced across on a wild pitch.

The count rose to 7-1 in the fourth inning, as Gold collected two more runs after two were out.

Borzlaff legged out an infield hit to deep short. Vickers walked and Zimmerman was again hit with a pitch to load the bases. Dougal then stroked a bad-hop, two-run single to centerfield.

Vickers coasted until the fifth, retiring eight straight batters during one stretch.

John Mattall opened the fifth with a single, and he eventually crossed on Dave Fiato's infield out to second baseman, Mark Doherty.

Gold wrapped up its attack and completed a regular-season sweep of SLE with six runs in the bottom of the sixth.

Grams led the stanza with a triple to right-centerfield, and when Mark Doherty's bouncer to third was misplayed the first run came across.

Brian Finnerty walked, Shane Smith spiked an RBI single down the leftfield line. Kevin Rourke walked, Scott Wilkins drilled a two-run double to left-centerfield, and Mark Lefebvre stroked a run-producing two-bagger to complete the attack.

East produced its final tally in the top of the seventh when Steve Wilson walked, P.J. Timmons singled and Jack Conway laced an RBI single.

Dougal and Lefebvre finished the game with two hits while Burzlaff, Vickers and Zimmerman scored a pair of runs each.

Gold once again played errorless ball in the field, with Grams making an outstanding catch of a foul pop in the seventh.

Andover Gold, 16-0

Righthander Bill Weidman boosted his personal record to an impressive 5-0, firing a two-hit shutout as Gold completed a season series sweep of Prospect Hill with this 16-0 romp.

Weidman walked only two batters and struck out four, facing 23 batters which is only two over the minimum for the seven-inning distance.

Andover Gold started its onslaught in the bottom of the first, scoring three runs on four solid basehits.

Mark Grams rapped a leadoff single to centerfield, took second on Craig Burzlaff's sacrifice bunt, third on a wild pitch, and scored on Billy Vickers' sharp single down the rightfield line.

Vickers promptly stole second, and he came home easily when Scott Zimmerman hammered a triple to leftfield. Steve Dougal's infield out rescued Zimmerman with the third run.

Gold batted around while adding five runs in the third. Burzlaff walked, stole second and coasted home on Vickers' second RBI single.

Billy Lane's two-out single plated Vickers and, after Lane stole second base, Rob Wilson reached on an error. Weidman walked and Mark Lefebvre lashed a two-run double.

Three more runs crossed in the fourth. Burzlaff was in the middle of things once again, as he belted a leadoff double to left-centerfield.

Vickers beat out an infield hit to shortstop, sending Burzlaff to third, and Vickers immediately stole second. Zimmerman followed with a two-run single to leftfield, and Dougal's infield out brought him across a short time later.

Gold wrapped things up with six runs against a succession of Prospect Hill pitchers in the fifth, managing just one hit in the stanza.

Six walks aided the cause, including bases-loaded free passes to Kevin Rourke and Scott Wilkins to force home runs. Shane Smith's infield out chased home a run, and Weidman helped himself with a solid two-run single down the leftfield line.

The only PH safeties were a two-out single in the second by Pat Doyle, and a leadoff single in the seventh by Mark Piccirillo.

Defensive standouts for Gold, again errorless, were shortstop Mark Grams, catcher Billy Lane, second baseman Mark Doherty and leftfielder Scott Zimmerman.

43 THE TOWNSMAN, JULY 30, 1981

Cedardale swim team defeated the Sun Valley swimmers of Lexington last week in a lopsided victory 350-136. Cedardale, a division I team, overpowered a smaller Sun Valley, division II team.

Picking up a pair of individual firsts for Cedardale were Jenny Thompson, Tim White, Jane Phillips, Gregg Morava, Terri Landry and Mike McCullom. Cedardale dominated the relays sweeping seven out of eight.

In the diving competition, which appeared to be an evenly matched contest, Cedardale took all four first places and dominated the second places.

Coach Mike Regan congratulated all his swimmers and divers competing in the meet and was particularly pleased with the many seasonal swimmers who improved their times considerably. "I hope that everyone will swim as well against Belmont as they did this week," he said.

Tewksbury Tops Andover In Tourney

By Bernie Smith

Andover American was eliminated from the Little League All-Star District 14 Tournament by Tewksbury American 3-2.

Earl Abdo and Chris Poor led the Andover attack with home runs in the first and second innings, respectively. Andover had scoring opportunities, leaving eight men on base including the bases loaded in the second inning. However, Tewksbury made some fine defensive plays, including two double plays.

Defensively, rightfield Jerry Nassif made the play of the game throwing out a runner at the plate in the second inning.

Maniscalco led Tewksbury going 2-for-2

(home run and a double) with two RBIs and a run scored. He also pitched five innings of shutout ball after relieving Byers after Chris Poor's second inning home run.

Earl Abdo and Steve Rikeman pitched well in a losing cause.

Andover 10 - Lawrence 5

The Andover team won its second game in the District 14 Little League Tournament by defeating Lawrence East 10-5.

Trailing 5-4 going into the fourth inning, Andover scored four runs to go in front to stay.

Mark Hashem and Jerry Nassif pitched for Andover and combined for a six-hitter. Nassif relieved Hashem in the third inning and pitched shutout ball the rest of the way. In addition, Nassif had two hits, including a home run, and scored three runs.

Earl Abdo went three-for-four (including a home run and a double) and drove in five runs.

Defensively, shortstop Jeff Smith and third baseman Abdo stood out.

For Lawrence East, Rozzi, Ziebinski, and Bourque had two hits each.

Network Is Awarded Funds For Program

The NETWORK, Inc., located in Andover, has been awarded $244,000 by the U.S. Department of Education to serve as the New England Center for Equity Assistance, it was announced by Fifth District Congressman James Shannon this week.

Director of the new center will be Leslie Hergert, a senior member of The NETWORK staff, who has specialized in the management of educational equity programs. Also working on the project, which starts this month, are Frances Kilb and Raymond Rose.

The NETWORK, Inc. is a private, non-profit, educational service and research organization. Founded in 1969, the organization provided a framework within which a "network of innovative schools" could help each other and get help from practical researchers. The organization's main focus has remained unchanged: to provide support for school improvement efforts.

The New England Center for Equity Assistance will help New England schools eliminate sex discrimination and stereotyping through analysis of school programs, policies and practices. The center will also provide consultation and training in areas of educational equity.

Working cooperatively with the six state departments of education, the center staff will conduct a needs assessment on educational equity for the region. Following the identification of high priority problems, workshops will be conducted throughout the region for teachers, parents and community members. Resource materials including books, articles, audiovisual aids and curriculum packages will be available at the center for loan to school districts.

In addition to these services, the center will provide indepth consultation and assistance to a small number of school districts. All public schools in the New England states are eligible to receive assistance and are encouraged to contact The NETWORK, 290 South Main St., Andover, MA 01810.

This newest project at The NETWORK complements its ongoing work in educational equity. Project Inter-Action, in of five model programs funded by the Women's Educational Equity Act, is a collaborative NETWORK effort with the Quincy (MA) Public Schools. Now in its second year, the project has developed and is implementing a model program for achieving educational equity in the Quincy schools' programming, counseling, athletic and extracurricular activities and in their hiring practices.

In another NETWORK project, Interactions for Sex Equity in Classroom Teaching, a research study is developing successful techniques for changing sex-biased interactions in the natural classroom setting. A set of intervention strategies that will produce more sex-equitable classrooms is being designed, evaluated and disseminated. Building on its extensive experience in the area of educational equity, The NETWORK's New England Center for Equity Assistance provides a valuable resource for New England schools.

"The Story of the Kelly Gang," an Australian film from 1906, was the first film to run over one hour.

Resident Appointed Coordinator

Dr. James Callahan, psychologist at the Greater Lawrence Mental Health Center, was recently named coordinator of the Lawrence Court Clinic.

Dr. Callahan will provide pre-trial evaluations, counseling to probationers (mainly juveniles) and consultation to the Court, House of Correction, Greater Lawrence Police Departments and other agencies.

For the past year the staff psychologist has been part of the center's Lawrence team and worked with the Lawrence House of Correction.

Dr. Callahan resides in Andover.

REALTOR

HOW MUCH PROFIT?

When you sell your home for a profit, Uncle Sam will expect a capital gains tax on the profit unless you buy another home costing more. But you can make this profit tax basis as small as feasible by adding legitimate expenses to the original cost and deducting expenses from the sale price.

You can add any buying costs, such as: title search, title insurance, lawyer's fee, appraisal fee, recording fees, property survey, credit report, bank lawyer's fee, processing charges and any "points" you may have had to pay. If you have made any capital improvements — finished attic, or basement, new kitchen, added porch, patio or swimming pool you can add the cost of these to the original price.

You can deduct your selling cost from the price you received: Realtor's commission, lawyer's fees, advertising costs and fix-up expenses if they were made within 90 days prior to the sale. Now you deduct the lower selling price from the higher original cost figures and you arrive at the taxable profit.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

WORKING FOR NUMBER 1 MAKES YOU FEEL LIKE NUMBER 1.

Last year I was just a card in a time clock, but I knew I had more to offer. That's when I joined the CENTURY 21® team. They trained me in everything, including alternative financing which helps me cope with today's high interest rates. I've been given all the marketing skills a trained professional needs in today's market. And an extra benefit, too: tremendous self-esteem.

Permit Fee

the selectmen ought to remain with the fee until their court case is decided.

(The selectmen are appealing Atty. General Francis X. Bellotti's decision that the new bylaw, which requires a one-year waiting period before tenants can be evicted from their apartments to make way for condo conversion, is illegal.

Town Counsel Al Daniels met with members of the attorney general's staff last week to request a suspension of the ruling until the appeal can be heard, but they maintained that they don't have the legal mechanism to make such a "temporary" suspension. They did say, however, they would cooperate in moving the matter "post haste" to the appeals court.)

Powers said he felt the tenants at Washington Park, many of them senior citizens, have "less fear" now than four or five weeks ago, though they're told there's a waiting list to buy their apartments if they don't want them.

Byrne said he felt the people are just "resigned to their fates."

Local Scouts At Jamboree

By Peter Larsen, Troop 208

More than ten local boy scouts will be going to the National Jamboree from Andover.

The Jamboree, a gathering of scouts from all over the nation and many parts of the world, will be held at Fort A.P. Hill in Virginia. These Andover scouts are part of Jamboree Troop 208 which includes scouts from Lawrence, Haverhill and North Andover. The troop is leaving Lawrence on July 25, arriving at Fort Meyer, Virginia later that day. They will then travel to nearby Washington, D.C. for dinner at the Smithsonian Institute where they will spend most of the next day touring. On July 27 the troop will go to the Jamboree site and set up camp. The next day the Jamboree begins. It is full of events that test a scout's skill, such as pioneering and camping. It will open up new fields of knowledge by using electronics and handicap awareness.

A scout also has an opportunity to earn merit badges.

After the Jamboree, the troop will make a side trip to Williamsburg and Bush Gardens.

Uranium

Today's nuclear reactors can only use a special type of uranium as fuel. This type is contained in just seven of every 1,000 pounds we mine. Most of the remaining uranium, however, can be used in a new type of reactor now under development — the breeder reactor.
